

A STATUE OF KENNA

Will Be Placed in Statuary Hall in the National Capitol.

THE BILL PASSES AT CHARLESTON

Providing For It, With Some Amendments—Lobbyists Bounced from the Floor of the House of Delegates. Not Much Business Done by the Legislature—The Appropriation Bill—The Inquisitorial Bill Passes the House.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 20.—The sessions to-day have been more interesting than usual to the looker-on, but the amount of business transacted has not been greater than usual. Almost the entire morning session was taken up in discussion of the bill providing for a marble statue of the late Senator Kenna in statuary hall, at the national capitol. It was taken up out of its order on motion of Mr. Clark, of Greenbrier, and on his motion, it was amended by substituting an appropriation of $5,000 for the $10,000 originally proposed. On motion of Mr. Edwards the bill was further amended by naming J. E. Dana, A. W. Campbell, Johnson N. Camden and Charles J. Faulkner as the commissioners to procure the statue. Mr. Stapleton, of Wood, moved to amend by inserting "and Peter G. Van Winkle" after the name of Senator Kenna. Mr. Brockmeyer moved to substitute the name of Daniel Lamb for Peter G. Van Winkle, but as Mr. Lamb is still living and the law only provides for statues of deceased persons, his amendment was withdrawn.

Mr. Stapleton's amendment was lost and the bill was taken up on a third reading under a suspension of the rules. Mr. Clark's amendment to the bill had been adopted with the understanding that the balance of the amount necessary for the statue would be raised by private subscription. Judge Maxwell voted for the suspension of the rules, but explained that he considered the proposition to raise a part of the money by private subscription a bad one, as it would set a precedent that might be followed by erecting other statues by private contributions only, the consent of the legislature only being necessary to enable them to do this. He announced that he would vote for the bill and would move cheerfully vote for it with the original appropriation of $10,000. Mr. Walker asked unanimous consent to amend the bill by making the appropriation $10,000, but Mr. Clark objected and the amendment was withdrawn. The bill as amended was passed, to take effect from its passage.

Mr. McClung moved that rule 72 excluding all visitors, lobbyists, etc., from the floor, be enforced, after the noon recess, which motion prevailed. He explained that the appropriation bill would be under consideration. He thought the lobbyists had already given to the members all necessary instructions in regard to their action on the bill.

The bill was immediately taken up as a special order. On motion of Mr. Floyd it was amended by substituting $500 for $500 per year allowed to the penitentiary physician. The annual appropriation for the state historical society was changed from $500 to $750 and the appropriation of $1,500 for books for university cadets was cut down to $1,000 also on motion of Mr. Floyd. On motion of Mr. Johnston an additional appropriation of $500 was inserted to buy a piano for the Concord normal school. On motion of Mr. Brockmeyer a provision was made that for that school should not provide for an outfit of more than the amount appropriated for that purpose at this session and that the board of regents should be personally reliable for any excess. The same provision was made, also on motion of Mr. Brockmeyer, in regard to the purchase of additional grounds and property for Shepard college.

THE SENATE.
In the senate Senator Worley's bill rendering women eligible to the office of notary public was laid on the table. The Judiciary committee reported the bill extending the time in which district and sale may be made for taxes and fee bills; house bill 57, relating to the printing of ballots; house bill 62 (State road law); house bill 69, relating to the appointment of committees, and house bill 81, Chambers bill requiring a tax on retailers of revolvers and pistols, all without recommendation. Favorable report was made on the senate bills relating to the employment of short-hand reporters; amending the law relating to allowance of witnesses and amending the law relating to bills of exceptions. The committee on education reported favorably on the bill passed by the house amending the school law. One of its provisions is that county superintendents shall be elected for four years at the general November election, beginning at the election of next year.

The senate bill creating the office of court stenographer was rejected, also senate bill 65, amendatory to the road law, and senate bill 117, allowing wholesale druggists having license in the county in which their business is conducted and their traveling salesmen to fill orders for liquors from druggists and licensed physicians conducting business in counties where no license is granted. The house amendments to the Kenna statue bill were adopted and the bill passed by a unanimous vote. The Thomas bill, providing that the state be divided into three mining districts, was passed with the amendments already reported. The greater part of the afternoon was spent in discussing and filibustering over house bill 76, for the prevention of cruelty to children and providing for their proper care, education and maintenance in certain cases. At last it was passed by a vote of 17 to 7. The joint conferral committee in regard to the refusal of the house to agree to the senate substitute for the deaf and blind school bill reported recommending that the house recede from its disagreement.

NO EXTENSION.
At present there seems to be no likelihood of an extension of the session. The general feeling is against it, and the bills that have not run the gauntlet of both houses will probably die natural deaths. There is nothing before either house that is considered of general importance but what can easily be disposed of in the next two or three days, and if the appropriation bill is agreed upon without unnecessary loss of time, as it probably will be, there will be no reason why Friday night will not mark the end of the session. The finance committee of the senate is carefully considering the bill in its every feature and watching the amendments made by the house. It is not likely that there will be any delay in that direction.

INQUISITORIAL BILL PASSED THE HOUSE.

At the night session of the house the appropriation bill was laid aside and made the special order for 10:30 tomorrow. So far about one-fourth of it has been passed upon. The senate bill creating the criminal court of Cabell county, was amended by changing the salary of the judge from $1,800 to $1,500 yearly, and the bill was ordered to its third reading. The bill extending the boom law to include Putnam county, with senate amendments, was called up. The amendments to include Hampshire county and the Cheat river within Monongahela county were agreed to, but the house refused to agree to the amendment to include Marshall county. The Fayette county criminal court bill, the house bill providing for the purchase of the Charleston bridge across the Kanawha river by Kanawha county, Prince's anti-Pinkerton bill, (house bill 26, providing that persons not citizens of the state except United States troops cannot act in the suppression of any riot, or unlawful assemblage) were passed. House bill 52, Prince's "inquisitorial tax" bill, was read a third time and passed by a vote of 34 to 19. The Ohio county delegation voted solidly against it.

Ohio Legislature.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.
COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 20.—Representative Griffin this afternoon introduced a bill providing for the establishment of a naval and marine reserve along the lakes. It created three battalions of naval artillery and one torpedo corps requiring over three hundred men, but no provision is made for getting seagoing warriors out on the water for practice.

A bill was introduced by Representative Brittain, of Columbiana, to make railroads give a two cent fare to parties of five. The railroads now give excursion rates to parties of ten and over and this would bring this cheap fare nearer the people.

Mr. Price, of Hocking, introduced a bill to make unlawful the killing of the opossum between March 15 and November 1.

ARMY OFFICERS

Discuss Plans to Preserve Peace on the Hawaiian Islands.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The Herald to-day publishes the following from its correspondent at Washington:

Anticipating the ratification of the Hawaiian annexation treaty by both the United States senate and the Provisional government of Hawaii, the military and naval authorities are discussing what should be done for the preservation of peace on the islands pending the establishment of a permanent form of government. It is realized, from the heterogeneous character of the population the islands, and the general tendency of the native element revolution, that peacefully to maintain American sovereignty over the islands there must be a proper display of military from the time annexation becomes an established fact.

In this connection the advisability of sending troops of the regular army to the islands is being informally and seriously discussed by many army officers. The navy people, as a rule, believe that the sailors and marines should be utilized for this purpose, but they are forced to admit that by reason of the limited number of naval vessels at hand, it might be advisable to send several batteries of artillery from California, to remain at Honolulu until some of the new vessels can be sent from this coast. Under the permanent form of government to be established by legislation it is suggested that there should be a standing army organized from the inhabitants of the islands. A number of American officers, it has been further suggested, should be detailed to perfect the organization, and when the United States has established the proposed coaling station in Pearl Harbor there should be an American garrison to defend the entrance to the harbor.

For the time being there is no disposition on the part of the authorities to make a display of force on the islands or in any way assume an aggressive attitude that would be likely to offend other foreign countries having interests on the islands, but when annexation is accomplished it seems to be generally agreed by the authorities that a good display of United States forces will be necessary to maintain peace among the natives and properly to protect American interests.

Sunday and the World's Fair.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 20.—The World's Fair committee of the house to-day further discussed the several propositions pending relative to the Sunday opening of the exposition, but no conclusion was reached and the committee adjourned to no fixed day. A member of the committee said after the meeting that he thought it safe to say that no action on the proposition would be taken at this session of Congress.

"Brace Up"
Is a tantalizing admonition to those who at this season feel all tired out, weak, without appetite and discouraged. But the way in which Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the tired frame and gives a good appetite is really wonderful. So we say, "Take Hood's and it will brace you up."

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's PILLS.

THE HON. JAMES HALL

Will Travel in Royal Style to New Orleans With a Train Load of Sports.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Jim Hall will travel to New Orleans in royal style. A special train has been engaged to convey the boxer and his friends to New Orleans, and everything will be done to insure his comfort on the road. This train will leave the Pennsylvania depot in Jersey City on the afternoon of March 4, stopping at Washington at 10:30 o'clock at night to take on a number of Hall's friends who want to journey south after the inauguration festivities are over. This train will be made up of eight or more Pullman cars, a dining car and a baggage car which will be fitted up as a gymnasium. Hall will have a tourist's car all to himself. The journey will occupy forty hours, the schedule time over the Richmond & Danville railroad route. It is expected that about 150 sporting men from this city and New England will travel on the "Hall special." Reduced rates will be ordered from Washington.

MITCHELL KNOCKED OUT.

The Braggish English Stagger Beaten Up by a Saloon Keeper.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Charles Mitchell, the English pugilist, went to the saloon of Jim Wakely, one of Sullivan's backers, and there tried the same tactics which cost him several months of liberty in England. Mitchell and his friends drank freely, and about midnight the effects of the liquor began to tell. He rebuked the bartenders for their slowness and called one man a "stiff." The Americans resented the insult and told Mitchell to keep quiet. He replied with profanity, and the barkeepers seized bottles and made for him. They struck him over the head and drew blood from his nose, but his friends interfered and got him out of the saloon. They placed "Gentleman Charlie" in a cab and carried him back to his hotel, knocked out in one round in the first fight of his present visit to this country.

Johnson and Donoghue's Challenges.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Feb. 20.—John S. Johnson, of Minneapolis, is in this city. In replying to Joe Donoghue's challenge to skate another race this time at Newburgh, he says that he will skate against Donoghue at the Normanna skating club rink, Minneapolis, any time within ten days for the championship, but he will not skate at Newburgh. He further says that it is only fair that inasmuch as one test of speed has been made in the east, the next should be made in the west. Unless the match can be made in ten days, Johnson will not race, he wants a time to rest before beginning to train for work on the bicycle.

Manhattan Athletic Club Fails.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The Manhattan Athletic Club House doors were closed and locked to-day by a receiver in behalf of creditors to the amount it is said of nearly one million dollars whom the club are unable to pay. The building will be offered to sale to settle claims.

Good and Bad Record.

MOREBLY, Mo., Feb. 20.—The negro, John Hughes, who was so badly wounded by the brothers of the girl whom he had insulted, has been removed to the Huntville, Mo., jail to avoid mob violence. Hughes, in an addition to studying for the ministry, has honorable discharge papers from the United States army. It is learned here that Hughes has in the past year committed at St. Charles, Mo., sixteen offences of the kind for which he was arrested. It is not known whether he will survive his wounds.

Bank Closed.

HARRISBURG, PA., Feb. 20.—The Farmers Bank at Third and Market streets, Peter Boys, president, closed its door this morning, pending an investigation by State Bank Superintendent Krumbhaar. It is believed that the depositors will be paid in full, but the stockholders may lose 40 per cent of their stock.

Eno Surrenders Himself.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—John C. Eno, the defaulting bank president who has been missing for many years, has just surrendered himself in the United States court. He had with him George W. Bliss as counsel and is prepared to give bail, having bondsmen ready.

From Bad to Worse

A Complication of Diseases

Hood's Sarsaparilla Gave Strength Just in Time.

Mr. Isaac Aber of Vienna, N. J.

"I gladly testify to the following facts: I have been a very great sufferer for the last five years with troubles of the Lungs and kidneys and the worst stage of Dyspepsia.

I could scarcely eat anything because of the intense pain in my stomach. I was also at one time covered with salt rheum, and my cough weakened me so that I could scarcely walk. I had several attacks of bleeding at the lungs. My breath became so short that I was unable to work and was obliged to give up my business, which is that of a mason. I could not even walk about much. So I kept going from bad to worse. I then had an attack of the shingles, which, with all my other complaints, confined me to my room for three months and Nearly Took Away My Life.

I had heard of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a good medicine, so I bought a bottle. When I had taken it, I found it had done me some good, so I continued till I had taken three bottles. I improved so rapidly that I could walk out of doors, and have steadily gained till I am at work again and use my hammer and trowel once more. The physicians told me five years ago that I would not live three years, and all the neighbors think it a very strange thing to see me at work again. It is the strength given me by Hood's Sarsaparilla which enables me to do it."
